

Press Release

Date: 20.11.2021

The Punjab affiliates of AIFUCTO have taken the bold decision to court arrest in front of Chief Minister's residence resenting the callous and step motherly attitude of the Government for inordinate delay in the implementation of 7th Revised UGC scales of pay. AIFUCTO has also appealed all affiliates across the country in solidarity with Punjab Teachers and wear black badge on the occasion. Hope Government of Punjab will realize the urgency and gravity of the situation and decide implementation of Revised UGC scales of pay in the state. This will facilitate the implementation of 7th Revised UGC scales of pay also in the states of Himachal Pradesh and union territory of Chandigarh.

Further AIFUCTO congratulates the farmers for their sustained peaceful agitation for near around one year which forced the Government of India under Narendra Modi leadership to unilaterally withdraw the anti peasant farm laws. AIFUCTO also salutes all peasants who have become martyr to a great cause.

AIFUCTO struggle against exclusionary National Education Policy 2020 and withdrawal of Draconian Labor laws will continue with much vigor and determination

AIFUCTO 31st statutory conference schedule to be held on 07th _09th January 2022 will take stock of the situation and will be vanguard for united struggle of all forces against shame less aggressive anti people policy of privatization which will be serious threat to our unity and independence of our Great nation..
