Press Release

All India Federation of University and College Teachers Organization (AIFUCTO) supports 27th September 2021 All India Band Program.

The United Forum of Farmer 's organizations have a given a call for All India Band on 27th September 2021 to express their resentment against stubborn and undemocratic attitude of Government of India to respond to their legitimate demand of withdrawal of three undemocratic black farm laws. AIFUCTO while appreciating the long sustained struggle of the farmers and condemning the pro corporate mindset of the central government, has decided to support and express solidarity to the call of All India Band on 27th September 2021. AIFUCTO affiliates across the state have been requested to mobilize all right minded people of India to make the Bharat Band a grand success not only in the interest of farmers but also liberate the country from the clutches of corporate and fundamentalist forces. Besides campaigning for success of the Band ,the affiliates also will highlight the demands of the working class to withdrawal of retrograde labour Laws and rejection of undemocratic, unscientific and anti people National Education Policy. AIFUCTO also appealed to all its members to be a vanguard of broader United platform of Peasants, Workers, Teachers, Students, Guardians and all democratic forces of the country to fight against neo liberal anti people policy of the central government.

AIFUCTO solidly stands with the farmers agitation and will leave no stone unturned to make Bharat Band Program on 27th September 2021 successful and path breaking in the wider struggle to save the nation from the honeymoon of corporate and fundamentalist forces.
