Grand Preparation for 31st Statutory conference of All India Federation of University and College Teachers Organization (AIFUCTO):

After two years of intense organizational activities through virtual mode due to disastrous impact of panepidemic Corona, AIFUCTO has now ventured to organize the 31st Statutory Conference. The conference will be held at Sri Venkateswara University, Tirupati, Andhra Pradesh from 07th January to 09th January 2022. This is being organized by the Joint Action Committee comprising of Andhra Pradesh Government College Teachers Association, Government College Gazetted Teachers Association and affiliated colleges Teachers Association of Andhra Pradesh. Befitting to the occasion a National Seminar on the theme "National Education Policy 2020 and the future of Higher Education -Post Covid scenario " will be conducted. The 31st Statutory Conference will be a mega intellectual academic brain storming session for three days on present national and international burning issues including the dangerous impact of a retrograde, undemocratic, unscientific and exclusionary National Education Policy pursued vigorously by the Government of India.

Near around two thousand delegates, observers, fraternal delegates, delegates from foreign countries, eminent academicians, central government officials are expected to assemble at the temple city Tirupati for wider consultation and exchange of views. The host organizers are also trying to publish a souvenir on this momentous occasion highlighting the history, culture of Andhra Pradesh as well as National and international issues affecting education and other walks of life.

All India Federation of University and College Teachers Organization since its inception in 1956 had a cherished vision and mission as well as deep commitment to constitutional ethics of education to consolidate the value of democracy, secularism, federalism and an egalitarian social order where there will be no exploitation and domination.

AIFUCTO had struggled consistently for a democratic, scientific, secular and inclusive education system of the country besides providing a dignified and respectable service condition for the teaching community. AIFUCTO also is extremely vigilant to uphold the multi-religious, multi cultural and multi lingual identity of the nation. AIFUCTO believes in political consensus

,encourages democratic debate in the organization and considers the Supreme interest of the nation above any political or ideological consideration. This broad democratic approach in the organizational functioning has made AIFUCTO bold enough to face any challenges of the time and has become very powerful with the passage of time. AIFUCTO has also become the vanguard of Teachers movement of the country and also a force to connect all progressive democratic and patriotic forces of the nation.

The 31st Statutory Conference of AIFUCTO is not only a moment of celebration and jubilation, it also is a wonderful opportunity to respond and react to the present dismal national scenario of the country.

The 31st Statutory Conference is being held at a moment when our entire nation is under the Leviathan disastrous impact of neo liberal agenda pursued by the BJP government at the centre with serious implications on life and fortune of common men. There has been a very close honeymoon between corporate and fundamentalist threatening the concept of unity and diversity of our cultural ethos. The National Education policy pursued by the Government of India will destroy our public funded education system as well as enshrined values of the Indian constitution.

The 31st Statutory Conference of AIFUCTO in the New year will come out with a broad action program against the unbridled privatization policy of the central government .AIFUCTO will rededicate itself to its long cherished mission ,vision and commitment for a just and equal social and economic order and will launch a bigger struggle to Save Education, Save Campus and Save Nation. The Statutory Conference under the leadership of Professor Arun Kumar General Secretary and Prof Kesab Bhattacharya ,President will be memorable, historical, meaningful and eventful. AIFUCTO has appealed to all its members across the country to participate in the historic conference when our country is passing through unheard and unprecedented crisis.
